2023 – 2024 Guidelines

- Passes will be limited based on the guidelines set forth by administration.
- Attendance should be taken seriously. Absences can set you back making it difficult to catch up.
- We will be using the link to my website through Microsoft Teams as our main form of communication. Please make sure you know how to access the website listed above.
- You will find ALL assignment information on the website. It is your responsibility to always have a hard copy and/or charged laptop with you.
- The Parent Square App and/or email is the preferred form of communication with families during the school year.

Class Expectations

- Arrive to class on time AND prepared every day.
- Organize your time AND your work to ensure a successful year.
- Phones must be away during instruction.
- Be your own advocate and seek help when you are confused.
- Be respectful and courteous toward your classmates and your teacher at all times, including raising your hand to ask/answer a question and remain seated throughout the period.
- Always try your best.
- Do not deface/damage school property (desks, calculators, tablets, books, etc.).
